Justia > US Law > US Codes and Statutes > Colorado Revised Statutes > 2018 Colorado Revised Statutes > Title 15 - Probate, Trusts, and Fiduciaries > Colorado Uniform Trust Code > Article 5 - Colorado Uniform Trust Code > Part 10 - Liability of Trustees and Rights of Persons Dealing With Trustees > § 15-5-1013. Certification of trust (1) Instead of furnishing a copy of the trust instrument to a person other than a beneficiary, the trustee may furnish to the person a certification of trust containing the following information: (a) That the trust exists and the date the trust instrument was executed; (b) The identity of the settlor; (c) The identity and address of the currently acting trustee; (d) The powers of the trustee in the pending transaction; (e) The revocability or irrevocability of the trust and the identity of any person holding a power to revoke the trust; (f) The authority of cotrustees to sign or otherwise authenticate and whether all or less than all are required in order to exercise powers of the trustee; and (g) The name in which title to trust property may be taken. (2) A certification of trust may be signed or otherwise authenticated by any trustee. (3) A certification of trust must state that the trust has not been revoked, modified, or amended in any manner that would cause the representations contained in the certification of trust to be incorrect. (4) A certification of trust need not contain the dispositive terms of a trust. (5) A recipient of a certification of trust may require the trustee to furnish copies of those excerpts from the original trust instrument and later amendments that designate the trustee and confer upon the trustee the power to act in the pending transaction. (6) A person who acts in reliance upon a certification of trust without knowledge that the representations contained therein are incorrect is not liable to any person for so acting and may assume without inquiry the existence of the facts contained in the certification. Knowledge of the terms of the trust may not be inferred solely from the fact that a copy of all or part of the trust instrument is held by the person relying upon the certification. (7) A person who in good faith enters into a transaction in reliance upon a certification of trust may enforce the transaction against the trust property as if the representations contained in the certification were correct. (8) A person making a demand for the trust instrument in addition to a certification of trust or excerpts is liable for costs, expenses, attorney fees, and damages if the court determines that the person did not act in good faith in demanding the trust instrument. (9) This section does not limit the right of a person to obtain a copy of the trust instrument in a judicial proceeding concerning the trust. Updated June 01, 2022The Colorado living trust is a document that an individual may use to negate the State's probate process. The Grantor (creator of the Trust) will place his or her personal assets in the Trust and nominate a Beneficiary, or Beneficiaries to receive said assets. When the Grantor passes away, the items listed within the Trust will be immediately distributed to the Beneficiary. The Grantor will also be required, upon the creation of the trust, to elect a Trustee to manage their assets during their lifetime and after their death. In the case of Revocable Trust, the Grantor can elect themselves as Trustee. Alternatively, the Grantor may relinquish all power of their assets, and potential income, by establishing an Irrevocable Trust. Each type will allow the Beneficiary to bypass the probate process. Laws - Title 15, Article 5 (Uniform Trust Code) Registration (§ 15-5-205) - Only required for Irrevocable Trusts. The Registration Statement (JDF 732) must be filed with the District Court of the Trustee. Will (Last Will and Testament) - Used to designate all assets not mentioned in the Living Trust. All property in a Will is subject to the probate process. Types Irrevocable - The provisions established within an Irrevocable Trust cannot be altered after it has been created. This type of Trust allows the Grantor to avoid estate tax and protects their assets from creditors. Revocable - A Trust that can be edited at any point during the Grantor's lifetime. The Grantor is often the same person as the Trustee. Individual Roles Within the structure of a Living Trust, there are four (4) major roles: Grantor (or "Settlor") - Initial creator of the Trust and owner of the assets to be distributed to the Beneficiaries. Trustee - Person managing the assets within the trust. The Trustee will distribute the assets to the beneficiaries upon the death of the Grantor. In a Revocable Trust, the Grantor may also act as the Trustee. Successor Trustee - The Successor Trustee will act on behalf of the Trustee should he/she become incapacitated or otherwise unable to handle the Grantor's affairs. Beneficiaries - Individuals who will benefit from the assets placed within the Living Trust. How to Make a Living Trust in Colorado There are no set laws on the requirements for Living Trusts in Colorado other than spelling out the powers of the relevant parties (Grantor, Trustee, and Beneficiary) and listing the assets which are to be transferred to the trust for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. In order to create a Trust that is binding, it is recommended to have the document be fully completed and signed with the Grantor and Trustee in the presence of a Notary Public. If it is an Irrevocable Trust, the document will need to be authorized and registered in accordance with § 15-5-205 by completing the Registration Statement (JDF 732) and filing with the Local District Court of the Trustee. Motor Vehicles - If a vehicle is to be placed in the trust, a Statement for Certificate of Title (Form DR 2170) must be completed and returned to a DMV Location. Real Estate - A Colorado Deed should be filed when transferring real estate to a Trust. The form must be notarized and filed with the County Recorder's Office. Websites - The Grantor must alter their settings with the company hosting their domain (e.g. GoDaddy) so that the listed information is in the name of the trust. Do I Need a Living Trust? Under C.R.S. 15-12-1201, if the value of an individual's estate is less than sixty-four thousand dollars ($64,000), there may not be a sufficient reason to create a Trust. With a Small Estate Affidavit, the heirs of the estate may be able to bypass the probate process when it comes time to distribute assets and property. If an individual wishes to spell out specific provisions in regards to their Beneficiaries, it is recommended that a Living Trust be created; without a trust, the heirs will receive equal ownership of assets and property. Resources Guide to Colorado Living Trusts Living Trusts - Frequently Asked Questions Irene Josey Treasurer and Public Trustee Updated June 30, 2022A certificate of trust proves a trust exists and includes general information to verify its existence. It also grants power to a trustee to act on behalf of the trust. It's common for financial institutions to request a certificate of trust before disbursing funds to a trustee or successor trustee. Commonly Includes (9) Name of Trust Type (revocable or irrevocable) Tax ID Number (#) Creation Date Settlor's Name(s) (Grantor) Trustee's Name(s) Trustee's Powers (broad or specific) Successor's Trustee's Name(s) Description of Property (if real estate is included) It's best to obtain the document, either by finding it through personal files or contacting the attorney that drafted the trust. Step 2 - Contact the Creator When contacting the creator of the trust, make sure that there are no updates or amendments since the original version. This will help the accuracy of the certificate of trust. Step 3 - Copy the Details After confirmation of having the latest trust version, it's time to copy the details onto the certificate of trust. Step 4 - Get Notarized It's commonly required to have the certificate of trust be notarized.
